

▼Ultraman Card Game – Sealed Format Rules

◆What is Sealed Format?

Sealed Format is a way to play the Ultraman Card Game by opening 4 booster packs, and building a deck using only the cards you obtain from those packs.

◆Deck Construction

From the 4 opened booster packs, build a deck consisting of exactly 30 cards in total, including both character and scene cards.

◆Game Rules

●Sealed-Format Exclusive Level Up Rule — “Baton Touch”!!

- In Sealed Format only, during the Level Up Phase, you may “Baton Touch” to level up your Ultra Hero by stacking an Ultra Hero card from your hand with a different ‘Character Name’ that is exactly 1 Level higher on top of it. Similarly, you may “Baton Touch” to level up your Kaiju by stacking a Kaiju card from your hand with a different ‘Character Name’ that is exactly 1 Level higher.

※ Ultra Heroes may only be Baton Touched with other Ultra Hero cards, and Kaiju may only be Baton Touched with other Kaiju cards.

- During the Open Phase, if a character was leveled up using “Baton Touch,” turn the cards underneath it face-down. (If the top card has a different Character Name than the card below, show the card(s) that will be turned face-down to your opponent before doing so.)
- A character that has been leveled up via “Baton Touch” has -1000 BP for each face-down card stacked under it.

●All other rules follow the standard Ultraman Card Game rules.

(For details, please refer to the Ultraman Card Game Comprehensive Rules.)

◆Event Rules

Event rules follows the standard Ultraman Card Game Floor Rules.

(For details, please refer to the Ultraman Card Game Floor Rules.)

◆Cards and Sleeves

- You may only build your deck using cards opened during the sealed event. You may not bring additional cards from outside.
- There are no limits on the number of copies of any card with the same card number, and there are no banned card restrictions in Sealed Format.
- Use of card sleeves is mandatory in Sealed events.
- All cards in the deck must be sleeved using identical sleeves and facing the same direction. You may double-sleeve your cards (up to two sleeves per card), but if you do, all cards must be sleeved in the same manner (same number of sleeves, same layering order).
